Stormont, Va., July 25—Mr. and Mrs.
E. E. Dunaway, of Saluda, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna Bugenia, to William Walker Butzner, of Fredericksburg. The wedding will take place in the late fall. Miss Dunaway is one of Middlesex's most popular young women and is prominently related throughout Virginia and West Virginia. Mr. Butzner is a member of the Virginia bar and is city attorney of Fredericksburg. Both have many friends in Richmond.

John Powell's Recital.

London, July 25.—John Powell, of Richmond, gave his only recital of the London season on July 13 before a crowded house at the Aeolian Hall, in New Bond Street. In spite of the period of court mourning, there were few vacant seats, and the audience enthusiastically recalled him several times after each number on the program.

This result was all the more creditable to the brilliant young Virginia pianist because he had adhered to * John Powell's Recital.

There was much anxiety here for a while this morning on account of a report that spread through the city that a number of people had been drowned at Morehead, at least a part of them being from Raleigh. One version of the catastrophe had it that there were twenty-seven drowned, and that twelve of them were from Raleigh. No names were given. The report stared early, and it was 10 o'clock before telegraphic communication could be gotten with Morehead in a way hat set at rest the anxiety and justified a positive denial of the report. There seems to be no way of accounting for the origin of the report.

erans of the Civil and Spanish American Wars in the National Soldiers' Home there, were poisoned last night, presumably by some of the food served for suppor. The remaining 1,500 veterans were not affected. The soldiers all retired well, but about midnight calls came to the hospital from every one of the steeping quarters of the big $2,500,000 home.

The staff of surgeons and nurses were worked overtime for several hours, but flone of the cases of illness proved serious.

Bread pudding is believed to have been the cause of the trouble among the hundreds of soldiers. The theory that their advanced age was probably responsible for it was at first accepted, until it became known that every member of the home band of twenty, except the captain, who did not eat at the home, were also knocked out.

Two deaths occurred at the home last night.

It was rumored that these spatited from the poisoning, but officials of the home deny that these deaths were from that cause.
